

UNITED STATES OF ROCK'N'ROLL

Music and lyrics: B.CHAMBERT

Hey, don't you see the way you're wasting all your time?
Hey, don't you see the way you're always bored and tired?
Friend don't you realise that life just slips away?
Hey, join the crew n' you'll get some Rock n' party every day!

Chorus:

We're one big family where's there's no troubles, no bad news.
Yeah! Just fun, eternal youth!
Life is short, so live it wild, fast and with a free soul.
So join the United States Of Rock n' Roll!

Hey, do you really think you'll have a great time at seventy?
Wouldn't you prefer to be retired when you're twenty-three?
United by the sound of our dreams - straight into the plug,
Don't miss the chance if you wanna see her without her skirts...

Chorus:

We're one big family where's there's no troubles, no bad news.
Yeah! Just fun, eternal youth!
Let's make the most of wild life while your blood is on the boil.
So join the United States Of Rock n' Roll!

Hey man, make up your mind
N' join the devil dance.
Come on n' you will find
Why it's call decadence!
Under the banner, you'll be stronger man!
So join the army on the highway to a better place!

Guitar Solo

Hey buddy, wear your leather you've got to run to the backstage show.
Don't you see all these girls, they just wanna fulfil your vows!

Chorus:

We're one big family where's there's no troubles, no bad news.
Yeah! Just fun, eternal youth!
Life is short so live it fast, while your blood is on the boil.
So join the United States Of Rock n' Roll!
