

SAY YOUR PRAYERS

Lyrics and Music : Benjamin Chambert

Everyday n' everynight
Wondered how I could live without you by my side
My dirty past you had washed away
But it came back to say, "You're gonna have to pay!"

My heart was beating fast when I saw the door ajar...
You were...

*Laid out...on the floor
Blood was flowing down the door
Felt the breath of wind, freezin'
Couldn't believe this movie scene
Laid Down...after the flood
Tears were melding with your blood
for miles around they heard my scream:
"Better say your prayers right now!"*

Burn with fever, feel the rage
Don't let this guy alive nowhere else than in a cage!
They took your life to bring me down
What they don't know is that I'm digging" their burying ground

How I could I've realized that this night was our final act
Now when I close my eyes, I think back...

*Laid out...on the floor
Immobile in a pool of blood
To reign, they've killed my queen
They'll regret it when they meet the king
Laid down...like in a nightmare
So many things that we won't share
The reaper said it's over
Better say your prayers right now!*

Guitar Solo

That cold void in your eyes...
My future's paralysed...
Vengeance is in the air, I'm gonna find 'em no matter where

*Laid out...on the floor
Crimson flowing down the door
Felt the breath of wind, freezin'
Couldn't believe this movie scene
Laid Down...after the flood
Tears were melding with your blood
For miles around they heard my scream:
"Say your prayers right now!"*

*Laid out...on the floor
Crimson flowing down the door
Felt the breath of wind, freezin'
Couldn't believe this movie scene
Laid Down...after the flood
Tears were melding with your blood
For miles around they heard my scream:
"Say your prayers right now!"*
